Jady is an Arkansas native and received her J.D. from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, where she served as the Student Bar Association Treasurer for two years and served as Chair of the Regional Client Counseling Competition. She also had the privilege of completing a judicial externship with The Hon. Doug Martin of the Fourth Judicial Circuit in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

While Jady now focuses on construction law, surety law, business law, and labor and employment, she also has a background in toxic tort defense. She has litigation experience in both state and federal courts across the country and has been particularly successful in resolving cases via summary judgment.

When Jady is not working, she enjoys being outdoors with her dog, exercising, and spending time with family and friends.
